(18) The singular form of any noun includes the plural wherever appropriate.

SECTION 2. IC 4-2-6-4 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2001]: Sec. 4. (a) The commission may do any of the following:

(1) Upon a vote of four (4) members, or upon the written request of the governor, initiate and conduct an investigation.

(2) Receive and hear any complaint which alleges a violation of this chapter, a rule adopted under this chapter, or any other statute or rule governing establishing standards of official conduct of state officers, employees, or special state appointees.

(3) Obtain information and, upon a vote of four (4) members, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of pertinent books and papers by a subpoena enforceable by the circuit or superior court of the county where the subpoena is to be issued.

(4) Recommend legislation to the general assembly relating to the conduct and ethics of state officers, employees, and special state appointees, including whether additional specific state officers or employees should be required to file a financial disclosure statement under section 8 of this chapter.

(5) Adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to implement this chapter.

(6) Prescribe and provide forms for statements required to be filed under this chapter.

(7) Accept and file information:

(A) voluntarily supplied; and

(B) that exceeds the requirements of this chapter.

(8) Inspect financial disclosure forms.

(9) Notify persons who fail to file forms required under this chapter.

(10) Develop a filing, a coding, and an indexing system required by this chapter and IC 35-44-1-3(f).

(11) Conduct research.

(12) Prepare interpretive and educational materials and programs.

(b) The commission shall do the following:

(1) Act as an advisory body by issuing advisory opinions to interpret this chapter, the commission's rules, or any other statute or rule governing establishing standards of official conduct upon:

(A) request of:

- (i) a state officer or a former state officer;
 - (ii) an employee or a former employee;
 - (iii) a person who has or had a business relationship with an agency; or
 - (iv) a special state appointee; or
 - (B) motion of the commission.
- (2) Conduct its proceedings in the following manner:
- (A) When a complaint is filed with the commission, the commission may:
 - (i) reject, without further proceedings, a complaint that the commission considers frivolous or inconsequential;
 - (ii) reject, without further proceedings, a complaint that the commission is satisfied has been dealt with appropriately by an agency;
 - (iii) upon the vote of four (4) members, determine that the complaint does not allege facts sufficient to constitute a violation of this chapter or the code of ethics and dismiss the complaint; or
 - ~~(iii)~~ (iv) forward a copy of the complaint to the attorney general, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the alleged violation occurred, the state board of accounts, a state officer, the appointing authority, or other appropriate person for action, and stay the commission's proceedings pending the other action.
 - (B) If a complaint is not disposed of under clause (A), a copy of the complaint shall be sent to the person alleged to have committed the violation.
 - (C) If the complaint is not disposed of under clause (A), or when the commission initiates an investigation on its own motion or upon request of the governor, the commission shall promptly investigate the alleged violation. If, after the preliminary investigation, the commission finds by a majority vote that probable cause exists to support an alleged violation, it shall convene a public hearing on the matter within sixty (60) days after making the determination. The respondent shall be notified within fifteen (15) days of the commission's determination. ~~Commission records~~ The commission's evidence relating to a ~~preliminary an~~ investigation ~~are~~ is confidential until the earlier of:
 - (i) the time the respondent is notified of the hearing; or
 - (ii) the time the respondent elects to have the records divulged.

o

However, the commission may acknowledge the existence and scope of an investigation or that the commission did not find probable cause to support an alleged violation.

(D) If a hearing is to be held, the respondent may examine and make copies of all evidence in the commission's possession relating to the charges. At the hearing, the charged party shall be afforded appropriate due process protection consistent with IC 4-21.5, including the right to be represented by counsel, the right to call and examine witnesses, the right to introduce exhibits, and the right to cross-examine opposing witnesses.

(E) After the hearing, the commission shall state its findings of fact. If the commission, based on competent and substantial evidence, finds by a majority vote that the respondent has violated this chapter, a rule adopted under this chapter, or any other statute or rule ~~governing~~ establishing standards of official conduct of state officers, employees, or special state appointees, it shall state its findings in writing in a report, which shall be supported and signed by a majority of the commission members and shall be made public. The report may make a recommendation for the sanctions to be imposed by the appointing authority or state officer for the violation, including:

- (i) a letter of counseling;
- (ii) a reprimand;
- ~~(iii)~~ (iii) a suspension with or without pay; or
- ~~(iii)~~ (iv) the dismissal of an employee.

(F) If the commission, based on competent and substantial evidence, finds by a majority vote a violation of this chapter, a rule adopted under this chapter, or any other statute or rule ~~governing~~ establishing standards of official conduct of state officers, employees, or special state appointees, the commission may also take any of the actions provided in section 12 of this chapter.

(G) The report required under clause (E) shall be presented to:

- (i) the respondent;
- (ii) the appointing authority or state officer of the employee, former employee, or special state appointee; and
- (iii) the governor.

(H) The commission may also forward the report to any of the following:

- (i) The prosecuting attorney of each county in which the violation occurred.
